ARR. GEORGE GUEST

Sleep my baby on my breast,
It is warm and cozy there,
Mother's arms are tight around you,
Mother's love dwells in my heart.
None can harm you while you slumber,
No one dares to harm you now,
Sleep so softly, dear my child,
Sleep so softly on my breast.

Sleep softly through the night,
Jewel of my tender love,
Does a smile light those eyes,
Stealing gently o'er thy face?
Do the angels smile above you,
You who smile so sweetly now?
You are smiling now and sleeping,
Sleeping softly at my breast.

Do not fear, it's just a leaf
Beating, beating at the door.
Do not fear, it's just a little
Wave whispering on the shore.
Sleep my baby, there is nothing
Here to frighten you tonight.
Smile so gently on my breast
At the angels up above.

∞ The First Reading

ISAIAH 9:2-7

The People sit.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness— on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

The Gradual, Lo! How a Rose E'er Blooming

HUGO DISTLER

Remain seated.

Lo! how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung,
Of Jesse's lineage coming, As men of old have sung.
It came a Floweret bright Amid the cold of winter,
When half-spent was the night.

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the Rose I have in mind.
With Mary we behold it, the Virgin Mother kind.
To show God's love aright, she bore to men a Savior,
When half-spent was the night.

This Floweret whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air
Dispels with glorious splendor the darkness everywhere.
True man, yet very God! From sin and death He saves us and lightens every load.

∞ The Second Reading

TITUS 2:11-14

The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

LUKE 2:1-14

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

THE REVEREND ANDREW R. THAYER

∞ The Nicene Creed
All stand and say together

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

∞ The Prayers of the People
The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

On this holy night your Son our Savior was born in human flesh; renew this Church as the Body of Christ that we may serve others as you have served us.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night you were born a King of kings and Lord of lords; inspire those with power and authority to work toward your kingdom on earth as in heaven.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night you were born in a stable; open our doors and hearts to those who have no home and those who struggle in poverty.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night the angels sang, "Peace to God's people on earth!"; strengthen those who work for peace and justice in New Orleans and in all the world.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night shepherds in the field heard good tidings of joy; give us grace to bring the gospel of Christ's joy to the sick, the naked, prisoners, and those who are hungry.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night heaven is come down to earth, and earth is raised to heaven; hold in your hand all those who have died in the hope of your closer presence.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

On this holy night Christians the world over celebrate Christ's birth; open our hearts that the Word made flesh may be born in us today.
Holy God, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Offertory Anthem, Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day JOHN GARDINER

Tomorrow shall be my dancing day: I would my true love did so chance
To see the legend of my play, to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.

Then was I born of a virgin pure, of her I took fleshly substance;
Thus was I knit to man's nature, to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.

In a manger laid and wrapped I was, so very poor this was my chance,
Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass, to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.

Then afterwards baptized I was: The Holy Ghost on me did glance,
My Father's voice heard from above, to call my true love to my dance:
Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.

∞ The Great Thanksgiving (PRAYER B)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus, Sung by all

PROULX

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People remain standing, the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

∞ The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

∞ The Invitation

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ was born this night in the city of David, our Savior, Christ the Lord.

∞ The Communion of the People

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion. As you approach the altar area, please use the hand sanitizer station before receiving the host. To receive the Bread, extend your palms, crossed and upward. Those who do not wish to receive Holy Communion may come forward for a blessing; please indicate this to the Priest by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten free wafers are available at the Communion station by the pulpit.

The Communion Anthem, Whence is that Goodly Fragrance Flowing?

FRENCH CAROL, ARR. SIR DAVID WILLCOCKS

Whence is that goodly fragrance flowing, Stealing our senses all away?
Never the like did come a blowing, Shepherd, in flow'ry fields in May,
Whence is the goodly fragrance flowing, Stealing our senses all away?

What is that light so brilliant, breaking Here in the night across our eyes?
Never so bright, the daystar waking, Started to climb the morning skies?
What is that light so brilliant, breaking Here in the night across our eyes?

Bethlehem! there in manger lying, Find your Redeemer, haste away,
Run ye with eager footsteps hieing! Worship the Saviour born today.
Bethlehem! there in manger lying, Find your Redeemer, haste away,

Praise to the Lord of all creation, Glory to God the fount of grace.
May peace abide in every nation, Goodwill in men of every race.
Praise to the Lord of all creation, Glory to God the fount of grace.
