∞ The First Reading

1 SAMUEL 15:34-16:13

The People sit.

Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul. Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the Lord was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

The Lord said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons.” Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” And the Lord said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the Lord.’ Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you.” Samuel did what the Lord commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, “Do you come peaceably?” He said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the Lord; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, “Surely the Lord’s anointed is now before the Lord.” But the Lord said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the Lord does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.” Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, “Neither has the Lord chosen this one.” Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the Lord chosen this one.” Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, “The Lord has not chosen any of these.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.” He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The Lord said, “Rise and anoint him; for this is the one.” Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the Lord came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

Thanks be to God.

All May the Lord answer you in the day of trouble, ***
the Name of the God of Jacob defend you;
Send you help from his holy place *
and strengthen you out of Zion;

Choir Remember all your offerings *
 and accept your burnt sacrifice; Grant you your heart's desire * and prosper all your plans.

All We will shout for joy at your victory and triumph in the Name of our God; *
may the Lord grant all your requests.
Now I know that the Lord gives victory to his anointed; *
he will answer him out of his holy heaven,
with the victorious strength of his right hand.

Choir Some put their trust in chariots and some in horses, * but we will call upon the Name of the Lord our God.
 They collapse and fall down, *
 but we will arise and stand upright.
 O Lord, give victory to the king * and answer us when we call.

We are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Please stand for the Holy Gospel.

∞ The Holy Gospel

MARK 4:26-34

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.”

He also said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

THE REVEREND ANDREW R. THAYER

∞ The Nicene Creed
All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem, Frohlocket ihr Gerechten

J.G. RHEINBERGER

Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous,
for it is good that the upright sing praises.

Praise the Lord, and sing to him a new song with the sound of the harp and psalter.

For the word of the Lord is right, and true are all his works.

He opens his mouth, and it is done; he commands and it is accomplished.

Blessed are they whom the Lord has chosen!

Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous,
for it is good that the upright sing praises.

Blessed are they whom the Lord has chosen!

- Psalm 33:1-2, 4, 9, 12

∞ The Doxology

∞ The Great Thanksgiving (PRAYER B)

Celebrant	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant proceeds with the Proper Preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus, Holy, holy, holy

PROULX

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People stand or kneel.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We re - mem - ber his death, We pro - claim his re - sur - rec - tion, We a - wait his com - ing in glo - ry.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

∞ The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Honoring our Daily Meditation Writers

As I reflect on this past year, I am so humbled and grateful to those folks who share their writing and deep commitment to this ministry. It has always seemed to me that as much as I dislike learning new technology, our Daily Reflections have given us the opportunity to share our deepest spiritual yearnings with one another for many years now. This year in particular, the meditations have been offered to 785 subscribers! Many of whom are far away, and all of whom have been offered the loving arms of Christ - despite social isolation created by COVID and physical distance between us. The added musical and artistic offerings have enriched the experience of our cyber community even more deeply!

On Sunday, June 13 we'd like to take the opportunity to say thank you during our worship and to meet the writers during coffee hour. It is my hope and prayer that this ministry will flourish for many years to come. During our long hibernation with COVID-19, the ECW learned new methods to "do church" in worship via internet links, Zoom Bible studies, and even virtual fundraising. This reshaping of old ways caused us to grow and strengthen our identity for mission and ministry in the world. We are pleased to welcome keynote speaker, the Rev. Sandy Casey-Martus, Assistant Dean to the Cathedral in Easton, Maryland. Mother Casey-Martus is a published author, teacher, preacher and leader of contemplative prayer. Pilgrimage Opportunities

Now that international travel is opening up once again, so are two pilgrimages that had to be rescheduled due to COVID. Both of these pilgrimages are being led by The Reverend Kit and Mr. Bill McLean. If interested in registering or in additional information, please contact Kit at pilgrimpathsllc@gmail.com or (985) 507-5995.

- The Camino de Santiago de Compostela will occur September 1-15, with the possibility of a 2-night extension in Madrid. There are up to 4 openings available. This pilgrimage begins in Avila, the medieval walled city associated with two Spanish mystics, St. Teresa and St. John of the Cross. From there we visit the magnificent cathedral city of Leon before beginning our 8-day walk which culminates in our arrival at the Cathedral Square in Santiago. There we will stay in the former and spectacular Royal Hospital of the Catholic Kings. The base cost without airfare is $3350 for double occupancy with a $850 single supplement.
- The next pilgrimage, from October 7-22, explores the Celtic spiritual tradition and follows the life of the extraordinary St. Columba, who along with St. Patrick and St. Brigid, is one of the three patron saints of Ireland. This year is the 1500th anniversary of his birth. After a stay in Dublin, we travel north where we base in Londonderry visiting sites to the east and west before crossing the Irish Sea to Scotland. Our destination is the storied and sacred isle of Iona and the abbey Columba founded there. We will return stateside via Glasgow. The base cost without airfare for double occupancy is $4250 per person with an $800 single supplement. Approximately 10 spots are available on this pilgrimage.
